First Level Controlling

As we informed you already, in the QUICK project all the partners' own expenses – especially personnel and travel expenses – have to be verified by a control authority from the mother country. Only project partners from Germany and Belarus can be controlled by the first level controlling authority of the Lead Partner in Hamburg.

This procedure is very time-consuming and causes additional administrative burden, but unfortunately it is necessary. In the first fiscal period from 17 September 2009 to 31 May 2010 it can lead to significant delays and a postponed date of payment of co-financing.

The whole documentation concerning the reporting to the first period has to be submitted to the Joint Secretariat by 1 September 2010 at the latest. Since the Lead Partner has to process all data of the project partners and the whole project requires an external audit, it is extremely important to send the documentation of the project partners to the Lead Partner as soon as possible.

Amendment to the Partnership Agreement

The signed Partnership Agreement was designed according to the assumption that only central audit will be conducted during the project implementation. Since at present it is necessary to conduct first level control in particular countries, it needs to be reflected in the Partnership Agreement. However, in order to enable 40 partners to implement the new procedure in the easiest possible way, in agreement with the Joint Secretariat, we will distinguish two types of expenses:

- a) direct own expenses of the partners, especially personnel expenses and travel expenses.
- b) indirect expenses encompassing all other types of expenses managed centrally.

Owing to this fact, the Lead Partner will bear the biggest part of pre-financing expenses and will unburden the project partners in this way.

After finishing the reporting to the first period on the basis of the gathered experience, we will submit to you a written proposal of an amendment to the Partnership Agreement.

News from the QUICK project

The new first level controlling additionally preoccupied the Secretariat of the Hanseatic Parliament, made the working processes more complicated, and caused significant administrative burden. In spite of this fact, from the date of the General Meeting in Minsk, the content-related works were continued and the project partners took part in a series of important meetings including the following ones:

It will then be sent to all partners with a request to assume a position in writing.

been prepared. These concepts will be discussed during the next meeting of the working group in Gdansk.

Promotion of international mobility

An important task of the Hanseatic Parliament and the Baltic Sea Academy is supporting international mobility of students, vocational students and specialists. Within the last few months we managed to direct many students to enterprises within the whole region of the Baltic Sea.

HANSE-PARLAMENT

At present we also have five companies in Finland which are very interested in accepting foreign trainees. If there are students in your institution/organisation who are looking for a training place abroad, please inform us about this fact. We will send you more detailed information directly.
